Federico Garza Carvajal Butterflies will burn

October 20th, 2018 - 5 Butterflies will burn is much more a book of ideas and conceptions that stimulates the reader to think again about how historians could or should deal with textual descriptions on prosecuted behaviour in early modern times than it is a story on prosecuting sodomites in early modern Spain and Mexico The focus on a different way of perceiving historical sources makes the book strong and original but the authorâ€™s approach is at the same time the weakest point of this book
